* Prices and dates will vary for spring semester students in the Hispanic Studies Course who enroll in 1-2 classes in other Schools of the University of Granada.

In order to make studying abroad in Granada more accessible and more affordable, students have the option to secure their own housing in furnished flats shared with other Centro de Lenguas Modernas students. The rent for shared flats typically costs approximately €210 - €275 per month (not including utilities).

Due to the dates and the duration of the J-Term Program we do not recommend that students attempt to find their own housing for this brief stay.

The CLM housing office will provide students with a list of available flats including contact information so that students can be in direct contact with the landlords. Students who choose to secure their own housing in this manner take full responsibility for all costs incurred including rent, all utilities (electricity, water, heat, internet), meals, etc. and will pay a deposit to cover any damages. The CLM provides the service of compiling a list of available flats but assumes no responsibility for the independent housing secured by each student. The CLM housing staff will be happy to assist students in understanding the complexities of each lease before they sign it and to facilitate communication between students and landlords. Students who choose to secure their own housing are encouraged to spend their first days in Granada in a hotel/hostal while they visit the available flats and process the necessary paperwork and payments.
