VOLUNTEER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

VOLUNTEER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The Volunteer Internship Program is aimed at university students and professionals interested in expanding their academic and professional experience through participation in a volunteering placement in collaboration with the NGO INLAYAPAS.

Students' participation in this program pursues two main objectives:

- To enable students to gain insight into the functioning of an NGO in Spain through interaction with its collaborating teams.
- To contribute to the NGO's activities by supporting its volunteer projects through students' active involvement and practical collaboration.

CONTENTS

Theoretical Content:

- Topic 1. The Emergence of NGOs I
- Topic 2. Introduction to Volunteering Course

Practical Content:

- Topic 1 Activities: Data and Statistics
- Topic 2 Activities: Interviews on Preferences

METHODOLOGY

The instructor will establish a tutorial-based and personalized support system for students throughout their clinical training period. At the beginning of the course, the instructor will work together with each student to design the strategies necessary to achieve the proposed objectives.

EVALUATION

Attendance at the joint seminars and the two tutorials with the CLM tutor is mandatory in order to be eligible for assessment. Students must also submit the signed attendance sheet.

- Attention, participation, and attendance at the joint seminars and individual interviews will account for 20% of the final grade.
- 50% of the final grade will be based on the report issued by the external supervisor regarding the student's work carried out at the INLAYAPAS Association.
- The remaining 30% will be based on the results obtained from the final report that students must submit in both written and oral form at the end of the course.
